Candlelight vigil

Aug 09, 2009

Members of the community joined family and friends of Cynthia Ramos in a candlelight vigil Saturday night in front of her home at the Green Oaks Mobile Park. Ramos was found dead Thursday from multiple stab wounds. Two suspects are in custody and will have their first court appearances Tuesday in Stockton.

More than 100 people gathered Saturday, with another vigil planned at 8 p.m. tonight and Monday at 2929 N. MacArthur Drive. The killing was the Tracy's second of the year.

Eight-year-old Sandra Cantu was killed in March. She had lived at the Orchard Estates Mobile Home Park. Her family joined Ramos' family in Saturday's vigil.

Maria Chavez and her family attended the candlelight vigil at the Green Oaks Mobile Park Saturday night for murder victim Cynthia Ramos. Chavez's daughter, Sandra Cantu, was murdered in March. She lived at the Orchard Estates Mobile Home Park.
