<< >> Police tonight arrested two men they believe are connected to the beating death of a woman in the Green Oaks Mobile Home Park.

Robert Plunkett, 39, and Jorge Morgan, 24, stand accused of killing 58-year-old Cynthia Ramos. Both men lived in the same mobile home park as the victim.

Ramos was dead when police showed up at her home, space #44, a pink single-wide mobile home close to the northern entrance of Green Oaks Mobile Home Park, 2929 N. MacArthur Drive.

The woman's roommate came home late in the day and called police at 4:42 p.m. to report that the woman was dead and appeared badly beaten, Watney said, adding that it's too early to release more details.

The roommate told police that when she pulled up to the home, she saw people running from the back of the trailer, and one was carrying a small safe, according to the police blotter.

The victim had severe head injuries, police said.

Police strung up crime scene tape around the home and stationed police cars at both entrances to the northeastern Tracy neighborhood. At first, they wouldn't allow anyone in or out, but around 5:30 tonight, they let people through as long as they submitted to a search and gave their names to investigators.

A few tearful relatives showed up to the park this evening. Police escorted them to a corner of the park as detectives gathered outside the dead woman's home and neighbors stared at the crime scene.

Neighbors said they didn't hear gunshots or a loud noise, and only found out about the incident when dozens of police showed up and cordoned the place off.

The woman's slaying marks the second murder this year in Tracy following the killing of 8-year-old Sandra Cantu in late March.

to Mark16:15: I'm sometimes fearful,I have lied a few times and I think religion's a crock of baloney. So it's the lake of fire for me? Don't you think that's a bit harsh?

Revelation 21:8 - "But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and MURDERERS, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death."

Our prayers go out to the family of this dear woman. May our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ by His Spirit comfort this family during their mourning and strengthen them for the days ahead. Venegeance is not ours but God's.

Evil exists in the world. Satan is the father of all evil. He is real. "But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and MURDERERS, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death." These two murderers will stand before God to be judged. Our prayers go out to the family of this dear woman. May our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ comfort them who mourn and strengthen them.

UncleWalt, never lose your home.

"Why, when I was just a young lad in college, I beat a homeless man in the face with a brick. Just because. I'd never met him before, so it definitely wasn't personal. Like I said, it was just because."

Just because???? That is so LAME. Either you were too weak to stand up to your peers or just plain heartless!!!

Robert knew her. He used to live in that park years ago. Not sure about the other guy though

There you go assuming things again, Tinfoil.

Beating someone to death isn't always personal. Sometimes it's just not premeditated and the killer, without a gun, knife or other "normal" weapon, instead chooses something nearby, like a blunt object of some kind.

There's also the possibility that, even though they all lived near one another, the victim never met the two suspects before the incident. It's definitely a possibility.

Why, when I was just a young lad in college, I beat a homeless man in the face with a brick. Just because. I'd never met him before, so it definitely wasn't personal. Like I said, it was just because.

I figured there'd be a quick arrest re this case. Being beaten to death, that's personal. Had to be someone she knew.
