

Woman Murdered in Tracy Mobile Home; Two Arrested

Jason Kobely ■ August 7, 2009

TRACY, CA - Two men were arrested in connection with the death of a neighbor found beaten to death inside her Tracy mobile home Thursday, Tracy police officials said.

Officers were dispatched to the Green Oaks Mobile Home Park at 2929 N. Macarthur Drive in Tracy around 5 p.m. Thursday, Tracy spokesman Matt Robinson said.

The victim's roommate returned home to find the woman's body inside a mobile home with severe head injuries. The victim was identified as 58-year-old Cynthia Ramos, Tracy police Lt. Jeremy Watney said.

The San Joaquin County coroner said Ramos died of multiple stab wounds to her upper body.

Robinson said investigators were looking into the killing as the possible result of a robbery gone bad.

A short time later, officers arrested Robert Morgan, 39, and Jorge Morgan, 24, on suspicion of murder, Watney said. The two are also facing conspiracy to commit a misdemeanor.

While both Morgans were reportedly also residents of the mobile home park, it was not known whether they knew Ramos or what led to the crime.

The men have been booked into the San Joaquin County Jail for murder charges. Their arraignment is scheduled for Tuesday at the San Joaquin County court in Manteca.

Dear Grandma, (Much Love for Kim and Angie.)+fam

Much Love for my friend Angie Maravilla, because of her I got to meet you, a wonderful women, whom I even called grandma... She always let me in her home and you gave me comfort when I didn't speak to my patents. I still remember the first day Angie introduced me to Cindy and Poopy her horse (its really a dog) inside joke.

Cindy thanks you for being a friend to me thank you for all the support and advice you gave to me. You were my only friend when I lived in Tracy... I enjoyed listening to oldies and watching Medea and that dam KAT Williams with you. Cindy thanks for the couple of times I had nowhere to go you let me stay with you and you even picked me up in the middle of no where. Do remember when I hated that poppy's hair got all over me? Lol. You showed much me love, so with love I say, "Grandma I miss you"

P.S. Grandma remember the Barbeque at your house, Junior (cheyo) also misses you he says hello. He was also very hurt to hear what happened to you, He remembers you called us recently we spoke with you and now he doesn't believe it.

Auntie Cindy ~ Gosh I miss you so very much. You were always there for me whenever I needed some where to run to. When I had to do the most difficult thing of my life you stood right next to me & held my hand and went thru it with me. I will never forget you. I wish that I could be so vocal about thing as did you. You had this way about you that I will never forget. Listening to the oldies with you, watching Kat Williams. Gosh you would make me sit there and watch it like 5 times a day. You knew every line I think. I miss you so much! I know that you will be watching over us from heaven and I thank you so that!

Love You.

I am Cindy's baby sister Debbie,

Wow this is the hardest and most heart wrenching, soul felt, tragedy Ive ever dealt with. I will miss coming to visit you and all the kids, I sure wish I would have came to visit, you were on me so hard to come and now I will never get to see you again for you were taken from us and THIS IS ALL SO WRONG..WHY,WHY,WHY. I KNOW YOU PUT UP A FIGHT CUZ YOU NEVER TOOK BULL____ FROM ANYONE. I will miss your laughter the most and your tell it like it is attitude. That of course you took after me. I use to tell you all the time I wanted to be just like you when I grow up. (you were more brave than me I only had 1 child you had 6). Well the pain that we all feel is so deep and heartfelt because you were a Heartfelt Person that is Loved and will be forever Missed by SO MANY....Sis I Love You, Debbie
RIP-I will see You and Brother Billy when I get there.

Dear Cindy,

Because of difficult circumstances I didnt have the joy of raising you, but from the day you were born I knew you would have everything in life you needed or wanted with Aunt Ann and Uncle Lloyd (who could have children) I always have carried a void in my heart because I missed your growing years. Although key contact throughout the years it never changed my Love For You.

When you were told that I was your Mother you didnt stop until you made complete contact with me and your siblings. You have always been my child and I willforever Love and Cherish the times we got to spend together. You are a Loving Daughter who always called me and kept me updated on all the kids and family. We spoke the day before you were taken and you were so excited about life and your new great grandbaby that is due. I want my Grandchildren to know that my Love and Thoughts are with them. Hope to see you all soon. Love Mom & Grandma

WOW, I AM AT A LOSS FOR WORDS AT THE MOMENT. I AM ORLANDO, CINDY'S OLDEST GRANDCHILD. WELL, WHAT CAN I SAY ABOUT MY GRANDMOTHER? SHE HAD A SENCE OF HUMOR LIKE NO OTHER, A SMILE THAT COULD BRING SUNLIGHT TO EVEN THE DARKEST OF DAYS, AND A CARING PERSONALITY THAT MOST WOULD CALL AMAZING. GRANDMA WAS KNOWN FOR HER "TELL IT LIKE IT IS" QUALITY. SHE HAS THE MOST AMAZING FAMILY, WE ARE KNOWN FOR OUR MULTI-RACE, MULTI-CULTURE FAMILY. THIS MADE GRANDMA VERY PROUD. OUR GET-TOGETHERS BROUGHT MANY DIFFERENT FOODS AND DRINKS TO THE TABLE. THERE ARE NO WORDS THAT CAN BE SPOKEN TO EVEN BEGIN TO EXPLAIN WHY THESE MONSTERS TOOK OUR MOTHER, GRANDMOTHER, AUNT, COUSIN,NIECE,SISTER, AND FRIEND FROM US. SHE DID NOT DESERVE WHAT HAPPEN. I ONLY HOPE THAT THE PAIN DIDNT LAST LONG FOR HER, BUT THAT IT LAST FOR AN ETERNITY FOR HER KILLERS. GRANDMA PLEASE KNOW THAT YOU WILL NEVER BE FORGOTTEN AND WILL FOREVER BE IN OUR HEARTS. REST IN PEACE GRANDMA.....ORLANDO

I read this quote a couple days ago . . .

"That I may cross over 'the bridge of judgment' with a smile.' The next day, yesterday, God tested this. I found out my Auntie Cindy was robbed from our family for no reason at all. She spent her last moments painfully, in contrast to all the moments of her years before she spent giving to other people. She was taken from her kids, her grandkids, her great grandson on the way, her nieces and nephews...all of us. She was robbed from our family and from the coming years of her life. I like to say everything happens for a reason, but this . . . This was senseless. Cruel and Evil. This bridge of judgment I haven't crossed, because some things just aren't forgivable. I know forgiveness is supposed to reach every corner... but I haven't gotten there. I wish I could be with my family right now. They are all in my hearts. Always and everyday. I'm not even in the country to be there for the people I love or to say goodbye to my Auntie... None of us should have to. I can't get my head around this. Are some people born with no souls, no conscience, no sense of humanity? How do you bring pain upon someone one....like that?!?!?! In that way????!!!! How can you bring bring this upon our family?! For what??? For what???

Cindy was my godmother, my mother's oldest and best friend. They've known each other since they were both pregnant at 16 with me and my oldest godbrother Danny. She always had a contagious laugh, so full of life, and always willing to help anyone in need. To suffer at the hands of these monsters is cruel~and I knew her spirit~ she fought them with everything she had~ I know this!! I'm still numb with the thought I will never hear that voice again, walking down memory lane with all of us kids~ oh the stories, all of us kids in tow~ her and my mom have had many adventures. I know she's lookin over all of us with spread wings, protecting all of us~ her childre, grandghildren, many friends, and my mom, me and my sister. I will miss her terribly and still can't grasp the nature of how she was tragically taken by all of us. To know her~ you were truly lucky. I miss you Cindy, and mom will always remember the last conversation you two had, just an hour before her tragic death~ talkin bout how much she loved all of us and how excited she was about Angie's baby~ looking forward to her 59th bday on the 22nd~ We will celebrate your life everyday and never, ever forget how much you meant to all of us. Thank you for being my moms best friend, and always being there for us. I LOVE YOU~ she's listening to her oldies in Heaven, with Grandma Ann and Granpa Lloyd, who she missed terribly. RIP Cindy. Justice will be served in your honor

FamilyGirlSpeak.....you don't need to say a word. I FEEL the love this family shared, and my heart ACHES for your loss. You know what life is all about, unlike the "animals" that took your Auntie Cindy from you. Do not give these "animals" any more power, than what has already been extracted, from your loving family. They are to be pitied. They are pitiful cowards, that attacked a helpless woman, with a family that loved her, more than life itself. Do not worry.....God will exact His revenge, in His own personal way. No worries. Live a life that would make your Auntie Cindy proud. That's the very best revenge.....a successful life, in the face of losers like Morgan and Morgan. Disgusting!

Hard to begin. Being a member of Auntie Cindy's family, I can see how many people are affected by this. I watched my Aunt read the comments below that family posted with tears in her eyes, I wish the "people" that committed this crime could see. Would they feel the pain they caused? I'm not sure they understand how much their action caused. I know they don't. I mean...she was a mother. A grandmama. Soon to be a great-grandmama. I just don't understand. I haven't even seen her that often these past years. But I know 5 minutes with her showed me everything. She was amazing. Irreplaceable. I'm just so happy I have a family that comes together and supports each other after a thing like this. I hope parents teach their kids the best they can. Any kid with a family as loving as mine wouldn't think of harming anyone. I guess I'm just lucky. Auntie Cindy, we love you.

Dear grandmamasgirl.....how lucky you are to have such a loving relationship with your beloved grandmama. Your loving thoughts are expressed so very well. You make me envious to have such love in your life. My children, grandchildren, and I had this same kind of relationship with my mother....until she left us in 2001. We too, would give anything to enjoy her cooking, and to experience her love again. Just know that time eases the pain, and soon it will be only the good memories that remain.....and of course, the love. Allow those memories to comfort you now. Congratulations, and take good care of that new baby boy on the way. Tell him about the love of his grandmama, and let her be your example. Please accept my deepest condolences in your untimely loss.
